

Award of Honor

The Award of Honor, the highest award given by the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology, is presented in recognition of sustained and dedicated service and meritorious contributions to the Academy and to rehabilitation of deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals in general. Persons nominated for the Award must have been a member of the ARA for a minimum of 5 years and have served the ARA in three or more of the following ways: as officer, committee chairperson, committee member, or member of the editorial staff of the Journal of the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology (JARA); through involvement in legislative activity on the state and national level to benefit deaf and hard-of-hearing people; by contributing papers to the JARA; or by presenting short courses or papers at Academy meetings. Recipients of the Award of Honor are as follows:

John J. O'Neill, 1986
Donald D. Johnson, 1985
Edward J. Hardick, 1983

Certificate of Appreciation

The Certificate of Appreciation is presented in recognition of short term, outstanding contributions to the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology. This award is not limited to those individuals who have been or are members of the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology. In particular, this award is given for extraordinary contributions and/or service to the ARA in a singular endeavor or special manner. The criteria for this award are purposefully broad so the award may be given for any activity of special merit performed by an individual or organization. Recipients of the Certificate of Appreciation are as follows:
