On May 20, 1972, from 9:00 A.M. to 12:15 P.M. the AAMD-CEASD JOINT COMMITTEE on the DEAF RETARDED will hold a Mini-Workshop at the Leamington Hotel in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in conjunction with the 96th Annual AAMD Convention (May 15-20). The workshop is designed for intensive discussion of programming to meet the needs of persons with the dual handicaps of mental retardation and hearing impairment. Each participant will select one round table group for intensive discussion to be followed by a general discussion period. The round table topics and their discussion leaders are as follows: Audio-logic Assessment (Robert T. Fulton, B. Patrick Cox, and C. Ellery Young), Psychological Evaluation (Donald F. Moores and Sue A. Warren), Language and Communication (Shirley L. Berger, Nona L. Burrows, and Jon F. Miller), Educational and Vocational Training (G. Lloyd Gruanke, Alfred Hirshoren, and Sylvia M. Hall), and Administrative Considerations (Arnold A. Madow, John Nace, and Larry W. Talkington). For further information contact:
