General Information

The purpose of The Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology is to promote excellence in hearing care through the provision of comprehensive rehabilitative and habilitative services.

The Journal of the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology is published annually and contains articles based on presentations made at the Annual Summer Institute of the Academy and other articles and reports submitted to the Editor. Selected articles are included in the National Rehabilitation Information Center (NARIC) collection and REHABDATA database, ERIC Clearinghouse on Handicapped and Gifted Children, Psychological Abstracts and the PsycINFO and PsycALERT databases, Sociological Abstracts, Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, and the ISI Index to Social Sciences and Humanities Proceedings.

The Journal of the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology invites articles and reports for editorial consideration concerning service delivery, program development, client perspectives, education, advocacy, and research related to habilitation and rehabilitation for individuals with hearing impairment. Publication in this Journal does not constitute endorsement by the Academy.

The Journal is distributed to the members of the Academy. Beginning with Volume 31, nonmembers may subscribe at the following annual rates: $50 for domestic and Canadian subscribers; and $60 for overseas subscribers (airmail service). All rates include shipping and handling. Space for Advertisements may be purchased for $350 (full page), $200 (half page), and $100 (quarter page). Camera-ready copy may be sent to the Editor. Subscription orders and business correspondence should be sent to JARA Circulation Manager, P.O. Box 26532, Minneapolis, MN 55426. Address changes should reach the office of the business manager by the first month preceding the change. Subscribers and ARA Members must notify the Post Office that they will guarantee forwarding postage for undelivered copies. Other claims for undelivered copies must be made within four months of publication.
