

Graduate Literary Award

Entries are now being accepted for the annual Graduate Literary Award competition, sponsored by the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology.

The competition is open to graduate students majoring in speech pathology and audiology and education of the hearing impaired.

Contributors must prepare a paper that is concerned with the area of aural habilitation or aural rehabilitation. Manuscripts will be judged primarily on the basis of significance of content and originality.

Entries must not exceed 3,000 words (exclusive of headings, references and tables). An original and two carbon copies must be submitted. Manuscripts must be typed double spaced on 8½ x 11" paper.

Each entry must be certified as the work of the author by the director of the training program.

The first place winner will receive $50.00, and the second place winner will receive $25.00. Announcement of the awards will be made in November at the annual meeting of the Academy.

Entries should be submitted to Edward J. Hardick, Ph.D., Department of Audiology, Wayne State University, 261 Mack Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan 48201. The manuscripts will be evaluated by the Editorial Board of the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology. The winning entries will receive consideration for publication in the Journal of the Academy of Rehabilitative Audiology.
